

INTERNATIONAL BRIGADE COMMEMORATION COMMITTEE

Cordially invite you...

(“The Internationals—United with the Spaniards We Fight the Invader,” poster by Parrilla, published by the International Brigades, 1936–37.)

Programme of events for the visit of

Bob Doyle

International Brigade Veteran

Saturday 16th September 2006

(The inscription on this poster, El Generalísimo, refers to General Francisco Franco (1892-1975).)

("All the people of the world are in the International Brigades at the side of the Spanish People". The three figures are those of a "yellow", "black" and "white" soldier, as to represent the whole humanity.)

Second of three Public Seminars on
The Island of Ireland and
The Spanish Civil War 1936-39
The People Unite Against Fascism

A Common History Seminar

Main Speakers:

Manus O’Riordan

(SIPTU Head of Research, Exec. Member of International Brigade Memorial Trust.)

"A diversity of Volunteers," an examination of the diversity of traditions -
Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Atheist; and political loyalties.

Jimmy McDermott

(Historian)

Discusses the local reaction to the Spanish Civil War

Saturday 16th September at 11.00am
In Transport House

102 High Street
Belfast
BT1 2DL

*Organised by: The Belfast & District Trades Union Council,
The Fellowship of Messines Association,
The International Brigades Commemoration Committee.*

Supported by Community Relations Council.

(The Popular Front of Madrid to the Popular Front of the world. Homage to the International Brigades.)

Also on
Saturday 16th September 2006,

On behalf of the IBCC,

Bob Doyle

Unveiling a plaque dedicated to the XVth International Brigade and the other volunteers who stood against Fascism in the Spanish Civil War 1936-39.

The ceremony will begin at 3.00pm in

The John Hewitt Bar & Restaurant
51 Donegall St.
Belfast
BT1 2FH

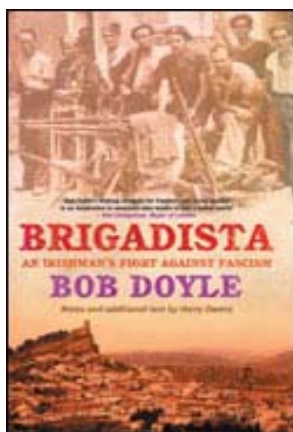

The unveiling will be followed by the Belfast Book Launch in
The John Hewitt
of

*'Brigadista
An Irishman's Fight Against Fascism'.*

By

Bob Doyle

Notes and additional text by Harry Owens
Currach Press

At 3.30pm

Saturday 16th September 2006,

In The John Hewitt

51 Donegall St.

Belfast

BT1 2FH

Followed by a social evening in The John Hewitt with music.

For further information about the above events contact:-

Kevin Doherty on 07748148863

Lynda Walker on 07751951785

Ciaran Crossey on 07759 393607

Harry Donaghy on 07790009803

The International Brigade Commemoration Committee can be contacted
c/o 45-47 Donegall Street, Belfast, BT1 2FG

